

GrowX Global Receives License to Cultivate and Process Hemp

Vancouver, British Columbia, May 2, 2019 - GrowX Global Corp., a producer and exporter of Cannabis and Hemp products based in Vancouver, B.C. is pleased to announce that on March 28, 2019 Health Canada granted the company a license to cultivate, process and distribute industrial hemp.

GrowX will complete the planting of its first Hemp crop by May 15, 2019 on 20 acres of company owned property in Mission, B.C. with expected first harvest in August 2019.

First year production on this property is capable of producing approximately 18,000 lbs of hemp and 227 kg of hemp oil growing to 36,000 lbs and 554 kg of hemp oil annually by 2020.

Our onsite processing facility will allow our experienced team led by Chief Scientist Dr. Sahil Gandhi to extract and process Hemp based CBD oil on site for up to 36,000 lbs of raw Hemp annually.

In addition, GrowX is working with local farmers to develop and lead a hemp cooperative and utilize up to 100 acres of land capable of producing an estimated 215,000 lbs of hemp annually; the co-op is expected to plant its first crop in April 2020. To maximize efficiency, the extraction and processing of co-op produced Hemp will be outsourced to local manufacturers.

GrowX Global is positioned to be a Canadian producer and exporter of dry cannabis, cannabis oils and hemp products. We are focused on bridging the gap between the current global lack of supply and massive growing demand for Hemp based CBD and pharmaceutical grade Cannabis products.
